VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR MAKE A DIFFERENCE DAY

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): Make a Difference Day is Saturday and Killeen Volunteers, Inc. needs individuals and groups to volunteer for projects to make a difference throughout the community.

More than 1,500 people have registered to take part in more than 70 community service projects in Killeen and Fort Hood. Volunteers are still needed to adopt remaining projects and to participate in others. A complete list of projects is available at www.killeentexas.gov/volunteer.

Make a Difference Day, the national day of doing good, is an annual celebration of neighbors helping neighbors. Each year, thousands of local volunteers join millions of volunteers across the country to make an impact in our community.

For more information on Make a Difference Day or to sign up to participate, visit www.killeentexas.gov/volunteer or call 501-7878.
