JUDGE KIMBALL WARNS: CLEAR YOUR WARRANTS NOW

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): Killeen Municipal Court and Killeen Police Department will be conducting a warrant round-up. Anyone with a Killeen Municipal Court warrant should go to the court immediately to resolve your citation and avoid being arrested.

City marshals and police officers will be out in force at all hours of the day and night making arrests during the round-up. Those with warrants will be located, arrested, taken to jail and arraigned. To avoid being arrested, anyone with a warrant should clear it immediately.

The goal of the Warrant Roundup is to clear outstanding class C misdemeanor warrants and to gain compliance in these cases. Many of the warrants are for traffic-related citations for which the violator failed to appear in court or comply with the judge's orders.

Defendants who have a warrant and would like to request any option other than payment in full may appear before the judge at the Killeen Municipal Court Monday through Friday between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

To determine if you have an outstanding warrant with Killeen Municipal Court, you may call the court at 254-501-7850.

Killeen Municipal Court, located at 200 East Avenue D, is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Those with warrants may remit payment via the following methods:
